

SEDA PRESENTATION

21 February 2023

WHO IS Seda?

The Small Enterprise Development Agency (Seda) was established in December 2004, through the National Small Business Act as amended (Act 29 of 2004).

Seda was initially formed through the merger of Ntsika Enterprise Promotion Agency, the National Manufacturing Advisory Centres (NAMAC) as well as the Community Public Private Partnership Programme (CPPP). The Godisa Trust incubation programme, Technology Transfer Programme, and the SA Quality Institute were later incorporated into Seda to form the Seda Technology Programme (Stp).

Other support include nurturing small businesses and start-ups in a controlled environment where they are mentored by experiences business development specialist until they are able to operate on their own.

BACKGROUND

2019 STATE OF THE NATION ADDRESS By President Cyril Ramaphosa

- President of SA, in the SONA address in June 2019, positioned SMME's as primary drivers of economic growth, employment and reduction of income inequality in South Africa.
- SheTrades hub was one of the key priorities announced at the SONA address that can assist in building the economy. The DSBD was tasked to drive the programme and will be implemented by its agency Seda and supported by ITC.
- The SheTradeZA hub is aimed to increase economic growth and create jobs by enabling increased participation of WOB in trade.

BACKGROUND

- Decline in female SMME's from 48% in 2008, to 38% in 2017.
- Female ownership more in micro (41%) and small (38%) than medium sized enterprises (27%). (IFC, 2018)
- SA has made headway in reducing gender bias for women participating in early stage entrepreneurial activities and receiving a moderate overall score of 23rd globally
- In SA, women only comprise 19.4% business owners, ranking in 45th, as compared to Uganda (39.6 percent) ranks first in the world with the highest number of women business owners, followed by Botswana (38.5 percent), and Ghana (36.5 percent).

Challenges Faced by WOB

Local tea brand crowned Food Lover's Market's new social enterprise supplier

Food Lover's Market has named Setšong African Tea Crafters as this year's winning social enterprise to join the retailer's supplier network through its Seeds of Change Supplier Development Partnership. The local tea brand's triumph comes after a stringent bootcamp and a day of pitching to senior Food Lover's Market executives.

As the successful applicant, Setšong African Tea Market will now supply tea products to the Food Lover's Market Group.
